An Agricultural Fair

During the latter part of September an Agricultural Fair will be held at Stanton in connection with a three day Farmers' Chautauqua.

Prizes will be given for the best exhibits of all vegetables, fruits, field crops, live stock, poultry, needle work, preserves, jellies, &c.

The rural schools will play a big part in this Fair, and I ask of the rural teachers to tell their pupils at once that they may begin work.

The time has come when we must think together, act together, work together, if we are to get the most from our endeavors.

This will be the place to exhibit the best your hands have produced. Premium lists and dates will be published later, but now is the time to start.

Your co-operation and interest will be greatly appreciated in making this a success.

Most Sincerely Yours,

H. H. HARRISON,
County Agt.
Stanton, Aug. 16.

Must Serve in the Army

Religious objectors will be assigned a definite place in the national army for the first time in a ruling made by Provost Marshal General Crowder. The men who thus claim exemption will be sent to mobilization camps for duties which the President may designate, as non-combatants.

The duties of these men have not been made known but may include labor, messengers, motor drivers, and clerks, and when sent to the front, though not actively engaged in fighting, they will be as much as any others exposed to shell fire in bringing up supplies or in carrying the wounded back.

Several members of the Church of God in this county, which aggregation of people oppose war in every phase, were intending to claim exemptions upon those grounds. This will be very disappointing to them.

Car Load of Fords.

A. T. Whitt, local agent, has received this week a car load of Ford automobiles which he is distributing to those who have signed up contracts some weeks back for machines. This shipment is the first since May. All these machines are sold and as many more. The manufacturers of this excellent machine have done their very best to supply orders as fast as they were given, but found it impossible to do so.

It's a Boy, this Time!

Word comes from Portsmouth, Ohio, that Editor M. P. O'Mara, formerly of The Times, and Mrs. O'Mara, are nurturing a nine-pound youngster—a son—Denis Lafelle, born three weeks ago.

The folks here send heartiest congratulations.

Yesterday's papers report hogs selling for $17.95 in Chicago. This means some meat for a few, and no meat for many.

Drilling Starts at Virden

The Bradford National Oil & Gas Company, of Bradford, Pa., are moving a rig on the farm of Mr. E. D. Curtis, two miles west of this city, near Virden, and will sink a hole in that farm. A ten barrel well was drilled in this neighborhood about one year ago, and great expectancy is entertained. This Company has acquired a number of leases and is going to put down wells it claims sufficient to test the field.

F. H. Wight, superintendent of the operations for the Company in this country, was in to see us Monday, and impressed us as a man who means business. He assured us that the holding on to all these leases about Clay City meant that the different companies holding them would make developments soon as they could be spared from more promising territory.

To Pay Your Tax.

The Powell County Deposit Bank, Stanton, has notice in this issue of The Times advising its many customers that it will pay the tax on all their deposits when placed with them. This is a forward move with all the good banks of the country. The Clay City National has also made such announcement, so that no person in Powell county need now worry over either the safe keeping, or paying tax on their money, as two solvent depositories are in their county doing this for them. And two more accommodating institutions never opened their doors for business.

Bail for Abney

Clem Abney had his examining trial before Judge Knox at Stanton Friday for the killing of Holden Ballard on Hardwick's Creek earlier in the week. He was allowed bail in the sum of $5,000, which he could not give and he was remanded to jail.

Abney was represented by Atkinson & Son. Judge J. M. Stevenson, of Winchester, assisted the Commonwealth in the prosecution. Relatives of the dead man have signified their intention to lead a vigorous prosecution for his conviction.

Red Cross has 111 Members

The Powell County Red Cross, organized in this city recently, has swelled its membership in the county to 111 members, of which 76 are in Clay City and 35 in Stanton. Sewing rooms will be opened in both Stanton and Clay City. A delegation will attend the State meeting at Lexington, Aug. 22 and 23, one half of them from Stanton and one half from Clay City.

Now Major Searles

Mr. L. W. Searles has been accepted as a Major in the Ordinance Section of the first Reserve Corps, U. S. Army. He is in readiness to answer call at any time.

Lieut. Irvin Called

Dr. R. A. Irvin, recently appointed 1st Lieutenant, Medical Section, Officers Reserve Corps, has been ordered to report to Ft. Riley, Kansas, Aug. 27th, for training for active service.

Road Working Season

This is the time of the year when the roads of the county get what little work they receive. So far, this work has not begun in Powell. Every man living in the country, between the ages of eighteen and fifty-two, owes the county six days work on the road upon which he resides. And it is safe to say that the road needs the labor. This labor, if properly applied, can turn bad roads into good ones. A good policy is to fix a little of each road good every year. If this principle is worked out it will be surprising how soon we will have a whole lot of good roads in Powell. Let every citizen insist on getting a little piece of good road along by his place this year.

Canning Demonstration.

A canning demonstration was held at the home of Squire Welch, about 1½ miles east of the city Thursday of last week. A Miss Brown of the State Department gave the demonstration. Quite a number of interested ladies were present, and all came away greatly benefited. Powell county housewives have never had any trouble in canning and keeping blackberries, peaches and other fruits, but in keeping canned beans, tomatoes and other vegetables they have found great difficulty.

Last Meeting of Creditors.

The last meeting of the creditors of the Pearsite Company, bankrupt, will be held in Owingsville, Ky., August 24th, for the purpose of making a settlement with trustee, at which time the cost of winding up the affairs of the bankrupt will be agreed upon, and the remainder of the receipts voted to the creditors. It is not supposed, however, that the funds will more than settle the labor account, which, by law, has a lien on the property.

Oil Company Elects Directors.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Security Producing & Refining Company in Winchester Tuesday, Mr. J. H. O'Rear, of this city, who has been connected with this company for several months, was, at this meeting, chosen Assistant Secretary and Treasurer of this large and successful oil corporation. Mr. O'Rear is a very valuable man in this capacity.

Our Best Wishes.

The particular feature about the war's birthday with the Times is the fact that we must depart from our usual custom of "wishing many happy returns of the Day," when writing up the affair. May it die the death of the wicked, and go down and remain with him who conceived it.

Protracted Meeting.

A protracted meeting of several days duration will be held with the Methodist church at Rosslyn beginning Thursday, August 23th. The pastor will do the preaching alone. All the people of that section are invited to attend these meetings.

STANTON.

(By P. O. Derthick.)

Mrs. Mary Catron was in Clay City one day this past week.

James Evans of Louisa is visiting his uncle, J. M. Evans.

Mrs. Harmon's parents from Ohio are visiting her this week.

Mrs. Weed Garrett is visiting with Mrs. Lou Faulkner this week.

Mrs. J. D. Atkinson visited her son Virgil at Bowen two days this past week.

Mrs. Mollie Crawford and her daughter Martel have returned to their home in Jackson.

Mrs. B. M. Kelly and children of Pennington Gap, Va. is visiting her father J. W. Baker.

J. M. Evans is going to have a new livery barn put up near the one where he has his present stable.

G. M. Daniel and wife of Cat Creek are happy over the arrival of a new baby boy born Sunday night.

Mrs. Edna Ware and baby of Winchester spent over Sunday with home folks, I. S. Boone and family.

J. S. Martin and wife, Cliff Chaney, Robert Ewen and Wm. Atkinson, attended the State Fair last week.

A. T. Stewart and family, who have been for ten days or more at Hazel Green, are expected home this week.

Thomas Baker, who has been in Virginia for some time, has returned home to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Baker.

Miss Elsie Perkins is expected home this week from Tennessee, where she went to visit the home folks before enterprise school again.

Miss Beatrice Blount was in Clay City this past week, at the Orphan Home, while Mr. and Mrs. Kerstetter attended the Lexington Fair.

A canning and drying demonstration was held at the courthouse last Saturday by Mrs. Brown of Lexington and was appreciated by all who attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Ide Boone are the proud possessors of a new grandchild which arrived some days ago at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thacker at Bowen.

Mrs. Ben Willoughby and her sister Mrs. Provie Welch, went to Primrose in Lee county, last Saturday to visit their sister, Mrs. Clara Hobbs, whom they had not visited for many years.

Charley Jackson of Covington is here visiting his mother. With his mother, and sister Mrs. Henry Faulkner, he went to Lexington, to the State Hospital, see his other sister, one day last week.

Clarence Atkinson purchased a beautiful little shetland pony at Lexington Monday for Marian Ewen to ride. Children delight in ponies of the shetland size, and it is fine that they can have them.

Mrs. Lydia Daniel was taken

School Days Here.

School days are here and the very best of them should be made. If possible children should attend every day, and should have started the first day of the term. The children should have as little home study as possible and should be made to remain out of doors for at least two hours of play daily after school, says a leading educator.

Children who come directly home from a tiresome school day and then curl up in a chair to study until supper, soon become pale and round shouldered, have headaches and dark circles under their eyes. If home study is absolutely essential, have child go to bed early, get up early, take a glass of milk and study before breakfast. He will then be fresh and work twice as fast as if he had attempted the same thing in the evening when brain and eyes are tired.

Have the children in bed by 7:30 or 8:00 p. m., and never allow them to attend moving picture shows or any other form of amusements that rob them of much needed early sleep, which is especially essential during the school year. There is time enough for these later in life, and on Saturdays. If mothers insisted on more sleep and regular hours for school children, there would be decidedly fewer cases of restless nights, St. Vitus dance and other nervous disorders.

The mother, as well as father, should personally visit the school and become acquainted with the teacher, not to criticize, but to make friends with her and talk freely about her children's shortcomings as well as their good qualities, in order that there may be a better understanding between teacher and pupil.

suddenly ill at prayer meeting last Wednesday night with two hemorrhages of the lungs. Dr. Johnson was called, who took her home in his auto. She is resting easier at this writing.

Mack McCormick was up here this week getting things in readiness for the opening of the canning factory next week. He reports the Mint Cola Co. of Winchester doing a rushing business and that they cannot fill orders fast enough. He said Fred Ware was in Virginia trying to buy 10,000 more bottles so they could keep up with the demands.

We regret to learn that Mr. Caton and his good wife are getting ready to leave us at the close of this month. They are having a store built at Kiddville in Clark county, where they will go into business. They have also bought them a new home to live in. We do exceedingly regret to see them leave our midst as they have made many friends far and wide, both as merchants and as citizens of our community.

A letter from Harvey Wells to his mother, Mrs. Williams, from somewhere in France, says that he is well and having a fine time and wishes that everybody could see beautiful France. He could

Babies' Health Contest Draws Mothers to the State Fair

COMMISSIONER COHEN AND PRIZE CUP AND BABY.

You would guard your baby with your life, but how much better to guard it with your brain. One million babies are now entering on their first summer, and one out of every fifteen of these will die, according to medical statistics, from heat, poor nourishment and the wrong clothes. Do you want your baby to be one of the fifteen? If not, learn how to keep your little one from heat suffering, from the wrong food and from clothes that sap its little strength.

Through the examinations, mental and physical, the scoring of points both good and bad, the scientific object lessons and reading matter provided by the Babies' Health Contest at the Kentucky State Fair, which will be held this year the week of Sept. 10, thousands of mothers are enabled to judge just what dangers are threatening their babies, just what ills to remedy and just how to keep them in prime condition.

If you had a hog, a horse or cow you would learn and know something of its care, because it is valuable. Isn't your baby worth more than horse or cow or pig? Is the query of those interested in the promotion of scientific baby care. They argue that, no matter how lovely, how dimpled, how pink and white and sweet it is, there may be disease or deformity lurking under this beauty, and this is an evil of which you should be forewarned.

Up to date mothers throughout Kentucky are not only entering this contest to find out about their babies, but are coming back year by year to mark the progress this knowledge has given them and the improvement it has made in their children.

The contest this year, which is under the supervision of Mrs. John L. Woodbury, will be marked by a number of innovations, among which will be an elaborate display of knitted goods for babies and the giving away of patterns for these articles to the mothers desiring them.

Another attractive feature will be the spectacular parade which will final the baby contest. This parade will be arranged as a beautiful spectacle in the Hippodrome pavilion and will show every little tot entered in the contest to the greatest advantage.

Entrance to the Babies' Health Contest is free and is open to babies between twelve and thirty-six months throughout the state of Kentucky.

Out of the Draft.

Have you noticed that broad smile on so many of the young fellows' faces? They have just got out of the draft which always subjects individuals to chills.

Pony for Sale.

Mare pony 45 inches high, spotted and four years old; broke to ride and drive. Will trade for other live stock. Apply at this office.

SLADE

E. I. Ewen attended the Fair at Lexington last week.

Alvin Faulkner of Stanton was here on business two days last week.

Master Elbert Leith of Stanton visited relatives last week at this place.

A meeting held by Rev. J. H. Johnston begins at the Furnace this week.

Mrs. Mary E. Faulkner visited Mrs. Taylor Adams and attended church, Sunday.

Miss Sarilda McDaniel visited the family of Jasper McDaniel at Lombard, Sunday.

School opened again Monday morning. There are no new cases of smallpox at this writing.

Mr. John Tipton and daughter of Rosslyn, are visiting with his daughter Mrs. J. A. Bowen.

Mrs. Lawson of Mt. Sterling has come to make her home with her daughter, Mrs. John Combs.

Mrs. Laura Centers of Lombard visited her nephew Ansel Center Sunday and attended church.

Misses Julia and Lizzie Sparks of Pilot were visiting their brother Shirley Sparks, the week end, here.

Mrs. Martha Amburgy and daughter visited their cousin Mrs. Shirley Sparks, Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Schooler Paisley and wife of Estill county, and Mrs. Tom Hall of Pilot, visited their brother, Charley Paisley, here last week.

Rev. J. H. Johnston has closed a very interesting meeting here, and will preach here again the second Saturday and Sunday in September.

Mrs. Jesse Brown of Finwick visited her sister, Mrs. George Ewen, here last week. Mrs. Ewen accompanied her home to spend several days.

The new road from Campton Jet is under construction, work beginning on it Monday morning. It will be a great help for people going to the oil fields.

The new oil rig is located at the mouth of Pritchard Hollow on Clear Branch, about one and a half miles from Slade, and the report is that we are to have several test wells.

We are glad to say Miss Maudie Bowen returned home from the hospital and is better at this writing, but not able to teach this week. It is hoped she will be out again, soon.

Word was received here this week of the sudden death of George Kerns of Saulsberry, Ky. He is well remembered by many in Powell county, and friends of the family extend to them their heartfelt sympathy. No woman ever lived among us more highly esteemed than Mrs. Kerns.

Yes; we are going to see the results of our prayers in the whiskey question, at last. When mothers go to working and praying, there will be something done. We don't want whiskey where our soldier boys can get it. We are sending them to defend our country and protect our rights that we may have what our forefathers died for—Liberty. Whiskey makes them unfit in every way, and, of course, all intelligent men and women are coming against it. They don't want their boy, if killed, to die drunk.

Don'ts for Consumptives

Don't use whiskey or tobacco.
Don't breathe through the mouth. Use the nose.

Don't expectorate except in a receptacle to be burned.

Don't wait to be cured but take every means to prevent infection.

Don't be afraid of fresh air but live out of doors as much as possible.

Don't take violent exercise or attend violent or exciting amusements.

Don't sleep in air-tight rooms, but give fresh air the fullest circulation.

Don't be fooled with sure-cure for consumption. None has so far been discovered.

Don't swallow expectoration. It's filthy and may cause consumption of the bowels.

Don't wait till it is too late before beginning to work for a cure after becoming infected.

Don't fail to sleep as much as possible and eat as much nourishing food as is necessary.

Don't put off seeing a doctor if you feel run down and lose in weight and have a cough.

Don't worry but remember that a determination to get well is a powerful aid in getting well.

Don't permit uncleanness in the home, office, shop or factory. Tuberculosis germs thrive on dirt and ride on the dust.

Don't think you can be cured in a week or in a month, but persist in observing the rules of treatment—and never give up.

Don't put off writing to the Secretary of the State Tuberculosis Commission, Frankfort, for literature for the prevention and cure of tuberculosis, which he will gladly send to you free of charge.

ROSSLYN.

J. D. Mardis is visiting his relatives here this week.

Willie Sullivan visited his best girl at Lexington, Sunday.

Mrs. Topher Daniel and little son, Guynne, visited her relatives Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Benningfield, last week.

A large crowd went to the State Rock, near the Furnace, Saturday, and out through the oil field. They report a fine time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Sullivan took a horse-back ride Sunday up on Cane Creek. It was some fun for Mrs. Sullivan had not been on a horse in seventeen years.

A mule team ran away from Rex Bowen last Saturday, and to his surprise they stopped in front of the home of A. R. Benningfield where the folks were having the birthday celebration.

Misses Zula Martin, Vina Benningfield, Lilly, Mabel and Flossie Sullivan; Messrs. Bert Martin Herbert Holman, James Wymore Kash Neal, Matt Benningfield and Belah Smyth, visited Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Martin, Sunday the 29th ult., and they had a fine time.

The many friends of Miss Maud Bowen regret to hear of her illness. Maud is an accomplished, successful, patient, kind and loving school teacher; a faithful Sunday School worker, she is dearly beloved by all who know her. Her recovery is anxiously looked for by her many friends and relatives.

Uncle John A. Tipton celebrated his eightieth birthday at the home of A. R. Benningfield last Saturday. There were present his five daughters—Mmes. A. R. Benningfield and daughter, M. F. Benningfield and family, D. R. Daniel and family, O. L. Daniel and son, Rupert Derickson and family, and one son Weeden J. Tipton, whose wife was also there. One daughter, Mrs. J. A. Bowen, was not present on account of the illness of her daughter. Two sons, also, were not present, being too far away. Mr. Tipton is a fine old fellow, with merry jokes and hearty laugh, and a warm handshake, and is welcome by all who know him. Everyone brought dinner and they spread it picnic fashion, and had a fine time. There were some visitors J. D. Mardis of Covington, Rex Bowen, Charley Hatton and Granville Howell and daughter.

Chances for The Amendment.

There have been 1,762 constitutional amendments proposed. Only 17 have been adopted. The first ten were a part of the original document. The three Civil War amendments required the support of the so-called carpet-bag governments of the South. Only two have been adopted under circumstances similar to those which will face the prohibition amendment, recently passed by the U. S. Senate for submission to the various State Legislatures.

There are, all told, 7,605 Congressional and Legislative votes to be cast on a constitutional amendment.

The ratification of this amendment must be concluded by the States within six years. Quite a lengthy time to wait for so important a measure, but still this shortness of time may defeat the adoption of the amendment. Yet the Prohibitionists are not frightened, for every amendment adopted has won its victory in less than six years. But the defeat of those two amendments was not backed by millions of dollars like the whiskey men will put against the proposed amendment.

Studebaker

WAGONS BUGGIES HARNESS

AMPLE PROOF THAT IT DOES—AND IS DOING—ITS WORK

My father purchased our Studebaker before I was born. I remember having seen it 40 years ago. Just a short time ago I hauled 3,000 pounds of coal on this wagon, so you can judge it is some wagon yet, for an old one.

I use the old Studebaker every day or whenever I need a wagon. It has always stood out in all kinds of weather up to eight or nine years ago, when I commenced keeping it under cover.

Charles Stratton,
Andover, Ohio

Hauls 3000 pounds of coal on 40 year old Studebaker

In the 80 acre lumber yard of Studebaker at South Bend is the largest stock of wagon material in the world—and none has been more carefully selected.

The good material isn't the whole answer—it is combined with skilled workmanship and that's why Studebaker wagons last forty years.

Studebakers build wagons today just as strong as they built them forty years ago. And the wagon that lasts longest is the cheapest wagon in the end.

There are a lot of reasons why the next wagon you buy should be a Studebaker.

We have just received a car load of Studebaker wagons, and by buying them in car load lots can save you money. We have them in the following sizes—size 2 1-4 in. with tires 1 3-4 in. wide, size 3 1-4 in. with tires 1 1-2 in. wide, size 3 in. with tires 1 3-4 in. wide, size 3 in. with tires 1 1-2 in. wide, size 2 3 4 in. with tires 1 1 2 in. wide and size 2 1 2 in. with 1 1 2 in. tires.

We invite you to call when in need of anything in merchandise. It is our aim to keep as near as is possible every thing the people call for. We handle good, up-to-date goods and at prices that will save you money. If you are interested in saving money in this way call and see what we can do for you.

PRIZE LIST OF $1,000 FOR STATE FAIR COUNTY EXHIBITS

Through the efforts of Commissioner of Agriculture Mat S. Cohen the agricultural products of Kentucky will occupy a very conspicuous and distinctive position at the fifteenth annual Kentucky State Fair, to be held in Louisville the week of Sept. 10. This year the prize list for county exhibits has been placed at the remarkable figure of $1,000, and in consequence the attention of the entire agricultural interests of the state will be centered on this particular feature of the big annual celebration. The prize list was announced the first part of the year as reaching the sum of $700. This sum was increased recently through the efforts of Mr. Wood Crady of the Louisville Chemical works and of the agricultural committee of the board of trade. He induced the board of trade members to vote an additional sum of $200 and his firm to add another $100 to this amount, thus securing for the county exhibitors of the state the unprecedented sum total of $1,000. As the list now stands the county winning first prize will receive $400 in cash, the county winning second prize will receive $250, and the winner of third prize will receive $150. This lifts the three prizes from $250, $150 and $100 to the above figures and gives to the Kentucky State Fair the largest prize list for county exhibits ever offered by any state fair in the United States with the exception of Dallas, Tex., which is the largest and richest fair in the country and has been in existence twice as long as the Kentucky State Fair. In addition to the cash awards for the best county exhibits, Colonel E. H. Taylor, Jr., of Frankfort, Ky., will give to the county winning first prize a handsome sterling silver cup, which will be known as the "Old Taylor cup" and which will be worth $100.

To the man or woman working up interest in the county exhibit winning a prize will be given a "booster's award" of $60 for the representative of the county winning first prize, $25 for the representative of the county winning second prize and $15 to the representative of the third prize winner.

For catalogue or information address Fount T. Kremer, Secretary, Kentucky State Fair, Suit 604 Republic Building, Louisville, Ky.

Work of Exemption Board

We have failed to learn many of the names of the men chosen in the draft. We are very anxious to give our readers this information and will do so as soon as those in charge are able to give us an official list.

At any rate, only about twenty of the forty-seven have been gotten. Of these, we learn that Harry L. Russell, Allen Rose, Chester Ogden, Gilbert Tipton, and others whose names we could not learn, have been accepted from this end of the county.

A call will be made for another hundred to appear for examination. Only about twenty have been accepted.

Health About Gone

Many thousands of women suffering from womanly trouble, have been benefited by the use of Cardui, the woman's tonic, according to letters we receive, similar to this one from Mrs. Z. V. Spell, of Hayne, N. C. "I could not stand on my feet, and just suffered terribly," she says. "As my suffering was so great, and he had tried other remedies, Dr. — had us get Cardui. . . I began improving, and it cured me. I know, and my doctor knows, what Cardui did for me, for my nerves and health were about gone."

The Woman's Tonic

She writes further: "I am in splendid health . . . can do my work. I feel I owe it to Cardui, for I was in dreadful condition." If you are nervous, run-down and weak, or suffer from headache, backache, etc., every month, try Cardui. Thousands of women praise this medicine for the good it has done them, and many physicians who have used Cardui successfully with their women patients, for years, endorse this medicine. Think what it means to be in splendid health, like Mrs. Spell. Give Cardui a trial.

Neighbor Told Her

'Cure for Lumbago

Rheumatism and lumbago are awful things and cause great pain and misery, but Foley Kidney Pills can rout them.

Mrs. G. H. Eveland, Duncan Mills, Ill., writes the following letter: "I was stricken down with lumbago and was unable to turn myself in bed. A neighbor brought me a half bottle of Foley Kidney Pills, and said she had been similarly afflicted and that they had helped her. So I tried them and was completely relieved by the use of two or three bottles. I have had splendid success with them and have never known them to fail. I most heartily recommend Foley Kidney Pills."

STANTON.

not say much on account of censors. We are quite proud of Harvey and the other Stanton boys in France and we know they will do honor to their beloved America. In many parts of the country they are forming committees to see that our boys in France receive several letters from home. Let them know that we are interested in them and keep them informed on all the little happenings around home. We have little idle how eagerly these boys look forward for letters from the home land.

Mrs. Sylvia Russell, Mrs. White Mrs. Schimfessel, Dr. and Mrs. Martin and Misses Harriet and Esther Searles, motored up from Clay City Tuesday of this week and held a Red Cross meeting at the court-house. Thirty-two new members were received, and we trust that everybody in Stanton and Powell county, old and young, from the baby to the aged grandfather, will join this noble organization. The Red Cross will look after our soldier boys who are wounded in France and there will be thousands of them wounded. What nobler work can we in Powell do than to supply them with medicine, bandages and comforts, during their trying hours of suffering. Some of us may not have any sons in France but there are others who will, and we want to see that they have every care that we can give them. The Red Cross is doing the greatest work ever done in the world. It only costs us a dollar to become a member and that is very small in comparison to the marvelous work that a dollar can do on the bloody battlefields of Europe.

The Richest Nation In the World

AS all the nations of the world are brought into direct comparison by reason of the World War, it has been noted that the United States is the richest nation on the globe. Our financial system is unexcelled and our National Banks are strong and safe. There is no fear of financial difficulties. Resources are abundant. Whatever part the United States may take in the war, it will be safely backed with enormous wealth. There will be a sound policy, with no war debt to hamper future generations and injure National Credit. As a National Bank and a Member of the Federal Reserve System, this Bank will share the general financial security of this country.
